CORAL SEAS INC PRESIDENT NOMINATED FOR THE 2008 PEW MARINE CONSERVATION FELLOWSHIP AWARD

THE PLAINS, VA, APRIL 10, 2007: Dr. Stephen C. Jameson, President of Coral Seas Inc has been nominated for the 2008 Pew Marine Conservation Fellowship Award. The Pew Marine Conservation Fellowship is widely regarded as the most prestigious award dedicated to applied marine conservation. The fellowships support innovative projects conducted by mid-career professionals. Through these projects, Pew Fellows develop and implement solutions to critical challenges in the marine realm and communicate that information to professional and general audiences in order to improve conservation of the sea. Dr. Jameson was nominated by the Smithsonian Museum of Natural History where he is a Research Collaborator.
